

TREASURE COAST REGIONAL PLANNING COUNCIL

MEMORANDUM

To: Council Members

AGENDA ITEM 9

From: Staff

Date: January 11, 2019

Subject: Council Work Program

Introduction

At the beginning of each year, staff updates Council on its annual work program outlining major tasks and ongoing efforts it expects to carry out during the year. Council's work program typically focuses on the areas of economic development, transportation, emergency preparedness, community planning and visioning, continuing education, and regional convening as requested by local governments and approved by Council. Council has a robust work program this year directly involving several of its member local governments and regional partners. Council's updated annual work program will be the subject of a presentation at the Council meeting.
