Help Define the Future of Central Palm Beach County

The Treasure Coast Regional Planning Council will conduct a public presentation to discuss the Palm Beach County Urban Redevelopment Area (URA) planning study

Friday September 15, 2006
2:00 pm

at the Cooperative Extension Service Center Building
Clayton Hutcheson Center ~ Mounts Botanical Garden
Exhibit Hall "A"

531-559 N. Military Trail, West Palm Beach
(note that on-site parking is limited so please try to carpool)

The URA is approximately 30 square miles located in the heart of developed Palm Beach County. The URA area is roughly bounded by I-95 to the east, Okeechobee Boulevard to the north, Jog/Haverhill roads to the west, and Lake Worth Road to the south. The purpose of this study is to evaluate existing conditions and to make recommendations for sustainable redevelopment in the area with a particular emphasis on the Military Trail and Congress Avenue corridors.
